

15 soveværelse Erhvervsejendom til salg i Luque, Córdoba

664.000€

This 19 Bedroom, 9 Bathroom Chalet Complex with a large entertainment / party room, 2 swimming pools and mature gardens on a generous 9,409m² plot is situated close to the popular town of Luque in the Cordoba province of Andalusia Spain. Set back from the road is a private gated driveway that first leads to an enormous car park on the left and to the right are mature gardens with an open grass space and a great size swimming pool area. You have a spacious entertainment / party room building with a bar and barbecue area to the front of the complex. Low level steps lead down to another central garden space with mature trees off which are the first of many chalet style apartments. There is also a central courtyard from where the many guest and owners / staff apartments are located along with access to the rear of the property where you have a private pool and more outside space including another gated entrance allowing for supplies to be delivered without disturbing guests. With many of the 19 bedrooms having air conditioning as well as some bathrooms converted for the less mobile this is an ideal property for a tourist rental and entertainment licenced premises.
