This 3 bedroom townhouse is located in the heart of Pruna, within easy walking distance to all the shops and restaurants, the town has to offer. The property has a traditionally tiled entrance hall which leads into a very spacious living room, with a large wood burning stove for those winter nights. The living room also opens out on to a small internal courtyard, where there is a downstairs bathroom and nicely fitted kitchen with plenty of storage space. On the first floor there are three bedrooms all of which are quite spacious, especially the bedroom at the front of the house, which has two large windows which lets plenty of natural light in and gives views out and over the town. This floor also has a good size family bathroom and a handy airing cupboard for extra storage. A second stairwell takes you outside to a split level terrace, the first level has a storage room, the upper level with a generous terrace offering views of the town and surrounding area, a perfect place for outside living.
