

Erhvervsejendom til salg i Archez, Málaga
30.000€

Located in the pretty village of Archez which is only about twenty minutes drive from the coast this property is currently used as a garage but has enough square metres to be converted to a house. It is on two floors and accessed directly from the road. One could make a large terrace which would give wonderful views of the village and the nearby mountains. The main plaza is within a few minutes walk

An excellent opportunity to create a home in the style you desire.
