

2 soveværelse Byhus til salg i Torrox, Málaga

160.000€

This charming traditional townhouse, located in the elevated part of the picturesque white-washed town of Torrox, offers an ideal blend of authenticity and convenience. It's within walking distance of the main square, and parking is conveniently situated less than 100 meters away. The standout feature of this property is its two terraces, which provide stunning panoramic views of the sea and surrounding landscape.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a welcoming reception area, which leads to the first bedroom, complete with an adjacent toilet. Ascending a flight of stairs, you'll find the second bedroom, which boasts an ensuite bathroom. On this same floor is the cozy and bright living room, offering a comfortable space to unwind. From here, another staircase takes you to the top floor, where you'll discover the kitchen area and two terraces. The northwest-facing terrace provides lovely mountain views, while the south-facing terrace offers breathtaking, uninterrupted vistas of the town, sea, and mountains—perfect for relaxing or enjoying meals al fresco.

This townhouse presents an excellent opportunity as either a holiday retreat or a rental investment, offering a peaceful ambiance yet close proximity to the town's vibrant main square and local amenities.
