The village of Casas del Señor belongs to the municipality of Monóvar, located in the province of Alicante, in the region of the Middle Vinalopo. Surrounded by beautiful scenery, pine clad hills and crops of olives, almonds and grapes the village is at the foot of Monte Coto, ideal for hiking. Landmarks are the bell tower of the church and the mediaeval aqueduct consisting of six arches of irregular measure, built of stone.

Less than 300 people live in the village, many work farming the land. The village has restaurants, butchers, bakers, chemists, small shops and other services.
