Cueva Sole in Freila

This is a quirky little cave house with nice views of the countryside. It is located on the edge of the village of Freila, not far from the stunning Lake Negratin. The property is a 5 minute walk to the village centre.

The charming patio has a cozy artsy feel. The patio is tiled with a fountain and a built-in bench. Parking is on the street about 50 m from the cave. You can drive up to the house to drop off.

The cave is beautifully authentic. It is ready to move in or update it to give it your own touch. There is a spacious front hall, which is welcoming and practical. On the left is the living room with a picturesque deep cave window and decorative former animal troughs. Straight ahead is the traditional Spanish kitchen/dining room with a fireplace. From the kitchen you pass to the bedrooms. Straight back along the hall is a "cubby hole" for a single bed, with the bathroom just across the hall. At the back of the cave is a cosy double bedroom. To the left of the kitchen is a double bedroom with a hall/wardrobe/storage that has a window looking out to the side of the cave.

The Freila town center is a 5 minute walk. Freila is a traditional village with basic shops, bars/restaurants and a weekly market. The City of Baza is a 20 minute drive with large supermarkets and the regional hospital. Granada city is a little over an hour away. Lake Negratin is 20 minutes away with its recreational beach park and seasonal hot springs and Jabalcon Mountain is 25 minutes away. The region is great for hiking and mountain biking.
