This new development in the city centre of Malaga, Costa del Sol comprises an exclusive complex of 35 apartments of 1 and 2 bedrooms. The spacious inner courtyard and the living area provide relaxation spaces, but the most significant feature is the rooftop swimming pool.

Within the area, it stands out as the new construction development that offers modern-focused homes, optimizing layouts and utilizing high quality materials to maximize space. Functionality and brightness in all rooms are part of the characteristics that highlight the quality of this development.

Due to its exceptional location in a residential neighborhood within a 20-minute walk of various amenities, it is generating significant interest, and we are not surprised. It also has excellent connectivity to any point in the province and is only a few minutes away from the city centre of Malaga.
