40.000€

Casariche is a town in the province of Seville with great access to all the local amenities the town has to offer including shops, local bars and local school. The property is in need of reforming throughout with the ground floor having the potential to offer a kitchen, bathroom and lounge diner. On the first floor there is room for a spacious landing and two good size bedrooms. The second floor has a small room which could potentially be a summer kitchen with utility area as it opens to a roof terrace with view up and over the roof tops of Casariche.
