Renovation Opportunity in Monóvar – Ideal for Residential or Investment Use This semi-detached property in Monóvar is a blank slate, ready for a complete renovation. Originally used as a garage or commercial space, it requires a change of use approval from the local authorities to be converted into a residential home. The property has no electricity or water connections but offers a solid structure and multiple possibilities. It can be transformed into a spacious family home or two independent studio apartments, making it a great option for investment or personal use. About the Area Monóvar is a historic town in Alicante province, known for its traditional charm, vineyards, and peaceful surroundings. It offers all essential services, including supermarkets, schools, and healthcare, while being just 35 minutes from Alicante and its airport. With a growing demand for housing, this is an excellent location for both living and investment. If you're looking for a renovation project with great potential, this is an opportunity worth exploring. Contact us for more details!
