Large Rural Estate in Yecla – Ideal for Agriculture, Renewable Energy, and Tranquil Living This expansive property, located in the Paraje Altos de Caudete in Yecla, offers 1,270,000 m² of land, including 539,351 m² of forest. Surrounded by olive groves, vineyards, and almond trees, it presents a unique opportunity for agricultural production, with available subsidies for its existing crops. Beyond agriculture, the estate holds strong potential for renewable energy projects. It is situated in an area designated for wind and solar energy development, as outlined in the Yecla Wind Map, making it an attractive investment in clean energy. The property includes two houses and a garage. The main restored finca features 8 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, and a spacious living room, while the smaller farmhouse offers additional accommodation. A private water well ensures a steady water supply, and electricity connection is possible. About the Area Yecla is a town known for its wine production, natural landscapes, and peaceful rural lifestyle. It offers a balance between modern amenities and a tranquil setting, making it ideal for those looking to invest in agriculture, renewable energy, or a private retreat. The estate also enjoys stunning panoramic views of the town, enhancing its appeal as a serene countryside getaway. This is a versatile and high-potential investment—whether for farming, sustainable energy, or rural living. Contact us for more details!
