

2 спальная комната городская тюрьма продается в Archez, Málaga

56.000€

Charming townhouse located in the peaceful village of Archez with lovely views from the large roof terrace over the village and surrounding countryside.

A very special house which was created in a Moorish tower, all of the details and finishings are kept in the typical Moorish style that is so special for Andalusia.

The property comprises on ground level the living room/kitchen and an attractively tiled shower room. A spiral staircase leads up to a double bedroom with a Juliette balcony, this bedroom has a wooden loft where there is another double bedroom. From this room a spiral staircase leads up to a lovely large roof terrace with magnificent views over the village and surrounding countryside.

A compact but very charming townhouse which would make an ideal holiday home. The excellent price allows one to get a first step on the Spanish property ladder. Mains water and electricity are connected.

 2 спальни

 1 ванная

 50m² Размер сборки