Are you looking for the ideal villa in the perfect position but not finding exactly what you are looking for? This plot of 828m2 offers the perfect position for a villa, situated in the rustic area in front of a national park forest with country walks, restaurant and facilities within a short walk. This area is ideal for family and pets, there are fantastic areas to walk and local terraces where there is great food and traditional Flamenco displays. This area is close to the beaches of Torre de la Horadada. This plot is in a perfect position, opposite the park and not overlooked, it offers a position to build a large villa of over 200m2 and private pool tailor designed to your needs and taste with the builder of your choice. MGH work with local builders and we can recommend builders and architects.
