190.000€

Built in 2006, this modern 3 bed town house is spacious, bright and airy and comes with a large garage and under build.

Situated near to the town centre with its parks, bars and restaurants, the property is ideal for both families looking for a permanent home and those wanting a home from home.

The front door opens directly into the large open plan family room with a separate dining area. The large American style kitchen with breakfast nook is fitted with the full range of appliances and is in good condition.

In the basement there is a huge garage that has been tiled throughout and which has space for more than four cars with an electric garage door providing access.

Currently rented out, this property could be turned into a wonderful home with the right decoration. Just 15 minutes walk from the beach, viewing is recommended.
