

6 chambre Maison de Ville à vendre dans Sedella, Málaga

295.000€

Situated in the main plaza of this lovely peaceful village, this beautiful old property with its 16th century tower was once the residence of the lord of Sedella has beautiful views from the terrace.

Interior accommodation is on three storeys. At entrance level there is a spacious living room, an attractive fitted kitchen with wooden units and granite work tops, 2 large bedrooms and an attractively tiled bathroom with adjoining utility room. Stairs lead down to the lower level which has a separate entrance and could easily be converted to form a self contained apartment. It comprises an open plan living room/ kitchen and two further rooms one of which could be made into a bathroom.

Stairs lead up to the upper level of the property where there are three spacious bedrooms (one of app. 16m² and the other two of app. 12m²) and a smaller bedroom suitable as a study and a tiled bathroom.

A final flight of stairs lead up to the wonderful old 16th century tower which covers part of the spacious roof terrace. (app.40 m²).

A superb opportunity to purchase an integral part of Spanish history.
