

1 chambre Maison de Ville à vendre dans Rubite, Málaga

58.000€

This townhouse is situated in a small village known as Rubite. The property has 2 separate entrances and is in need of renovation to make it liveable.

The property has different undefined rooms and is distributed over several levels, as it used to be a wine press. It has mains water, although it would be necessary to install electricity. The current owner has carried out several renovations to the house, such as changing the ceilings and making a terrace with views towards the mountains.

Included in the sales price, there is a plot of land close to the house with olive and carob trees of around 2000m², of which 80m² is on urban land, where a prefabricated house could be installed.

It is a good opportunity for someone willing to make reforms and live in a place where you can enjoy the nature and tranquillity that this village offers. Do not hesitate to contact us for more information.
