This property in casabermeja, is a fantastic property for horse lovers or for a family who love nature. The house does need some maintenance to the property. The main building is a beautiful house built of 266m2. As you enter the property you have a grand entrance through a porch where there is lovely seating area to enjoy the views and relax in. You have these great wooden doors, very traditional rustic style. You enter the hall way and to the right is an office, to the left is a very spacious open kitchen with every thing you need, large sitting come dining room with a lovely fireplace, at the back you have a nice sized pantry and a door to access the back of the house. From the hallway, straight ahead you have built in cupboards and a bathroom. To the right you have 4 good sized bedrooms and a bathroom in the middle, which is of a very good size with jacuzi bath. Then at the end you have the master bedroom with an ensuite bathroom and small sitting room with large fitted cupboards. A beautiful house with lovely views with a terrace and pool at the front and views of the countryside and then another covered terrace at the back with a small outside kitchen perfect for dining outside.

At the back of the house you have a small separate guest apartment with kichenette, a small bedroom and bathroom with a small cupboard.

Down from the property, you have a large barn with paths leading down to the barn from the house with trees growing along the side which look lovely with the light going through them
