

2 chambre Maison de Ville à vendre dans Ciudad Quesada, Alicante

265.000€

This charming 3-bedroom townhouse in the popular Doña Pepa urbanization offers south-facing views over the community and its pools. The current owner has converted the third bedroom into a dining room, but it can easily be changed back. The home features two entrances: one from the pool area and another from the garden, providing direct access to the kitchen. Inside, you'll find a spacious living room with an open kitchen and a bathroom, as well as a storage area. Upstairs, there are two bedrooms with two terraces, one facing north and the other south. The bathroom offers underfloor heating and a bathtub.

Located within a gated community, this home offers parking right next to the house and is within walking distance to local amenities like the medical center, shops, restaurants, and bars. Just a short drive to Alicante Airport and the beaches of Guardamar.
