

3 slaapkamer Landhuis Te koop in Sabariego, Jaén

250.000€

This is a great country property which has recently been updated by the current owners. You enter the property off the country road via double gates, down the driveway to a large parking area with a garage. The house itself is built on one level with several entrances. Inside there are 3 very large bedrooms and two excellent bathrooms. The sitting room is totally open plan and central to the property. It also has a lovely fully fitted modern kitchen and one of the bathrooms also has a rear door to the garden where the large pool is located. Around the pool there is a lovely seating area with BBQ and a small outbuilding used for storage but this could also be made into a studio etc. Set down from the pool is a lawn area that could easily be made into a tennis court or basketball court, any type of play area in fact. The property has its own very large garden where you can grow vegetables, fruits etc and this leads down to the river - set away from the property so no risk of flooding. The garden has its own irrigation system in place too. Just a perfect property that would make a great holiday home, would rent well, and also ideal for a family.
