Cueva Malaika in Galera

Cueva Malaika is a stunning, unattached cave property with a garden and almond grove, situated on the outskirts of the beautiful village of Galera. The property is nestled in the hills surrounded by nature, beauty and peace, with 180° views of the dramatic badlands. Access is good and it's a 15 minute walk into the village.

The current owners have installed a state of the art solar energy system that supplies the entire property. Mains electricity connection is also nearby, if desired. The outer walls and roof are fully insulated, and all windows are double glazed. The entire house and garden have been designed to require minimal maintenance. The property is on mains water.

There is a gated driveway and a carport that accommodates a large motorhome. The gravel driveway and garden area are fully fenced and planted with mature olives, roses and other flowering shrubs. The huge front patio has a bar room and wood shed. The sheltered side patio has an outdoor dining area and a delightful shaded lounge area under a grape vine arbour. An outdoor shower, ample cupboards and a large storage garage complete this beautiful outdoor space, which offers striking views of the mountains of La Sagra and Marmolances.

The cave house has an entrance porch, an open plan living/dining/kitchen, 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, pantry, hall/office. The house is built on one level.

The front entrance has wrought iron and glass double doors with side panels. A pretty vestibule opens to the spacious, bright, open plan dining / living room with a large light tower, and a powerful Propani wood burner. To the right of the
