Villa Montroc is a stylish 5 bedroom family villa set within 4-acre estate in Castell-Platja d'Aro on the popular Costa Brava.

A rare gem, the house and leisure areas are nestled into the hills surrounded by the scented pine and oak trees of the protected woodlands to provide a truly charming, relaxing, and private environment.

The estate comes with a 5-bedroom family villa, established gardens, an 8m x 16m swimming pool with a teak diving board and an extensive pool surround, ideal for sunbathing and relaxing by the pool. Adjacent to the pool is a large, grassed lawn area perfect for playing badminton, volleyball or simply relaxing with friends or family.

The property is the perfect spot for a nature-loving, active family. Successful professionals and business people, pressurized by their over-demanding life, will find an exceptional protected relaxing environment. A very private upgraded way of life but at a short drive to the beaches, shops, and restaurants of nearby Castell-Platja d'Aro and Sant Feliu de Guixols. There are 8 golf courses in the area, with two 10 minutes away! It is easily accessible, only 25 minutes from Gerona and 80 minutes from Barcelona airports.
