149.000€

Casa Antonio is a large 2 story house in the center of Vinuela village with all of its amenities. There are plenty of terraces and balconies off of the bedrooms with a mountain view. You walk into a large hallway which could also be made into a dining room. The lounge is separate and has a feature wood burner. The kitchen is a good size with plenty of unit space and granite work tops. On this level you have one bedroom, a general bathroom and a large court yard with store room, utility room and a shower room. Upstairs there is a fairly big store room that could be changed into another bathroom and there are four further bedrooms, 3 of which have their own balconies. The largest of the bedrooms has an outside spiral staircase leading to the large roof terrace. This is a great opportunity to buy a large house in the center of a charming village.
