

2 soverom Leilighet til salgs i Albir, Alicante

585.000€

This fabulous new development will be constructed on a 30,000m² plot, in the prestigious small town of Albir along the beautiful Costa Blanca coast line. These apartments will be second line to the beach and the town is just a few metres away. Albir is well know for it's fantastic climate, beautiful scenery and top class restaurants. The apartments will be built to a very high standard including all the latest technology. They will have large terraces and the ground levels will have gardens with beautiful flowers and features all around the development. This will be one of the highest standard developments on the coast with so many extras including indoor and outdoor pools, spa and wellness centre, tennis and Padel courts. There will be a reception with a concierge service and electric points for cars and bikes.
