

2 soverom Villa til salgs i Roldan, Murcia

235.500€

Project of 8 detached houses with swimming pool. This new concept of real estate is located in Residencial El Alba (Roldán), in the town of Torre Pacheco, a unique geographical place in the region of Murcia.

Enjoy days bathed in the sun of the Costa Cálida, surrounded by culture, history and traditions, and with a wide range of shops, sports and leisure activities.

This new two bedroom, two bathroom home goes beyond the prefabricated concept.

It is a modern industrialized home that represents a remarkable evolution in housing construction and offers great advantages over any other building system.

Modular homes offer a quick build and installation process and are fully adapted to the environment based on a home climate study and process.

Premium quality, more efficient and durable than traditional ones, helping you reduce costs over the lifetime of your property.
