

2 soverom Duplex til salgs i Los Balcones, Alicante

120.000€

Town house in Los Balcones. The property features a private garden with a high hedge providing shade and astro turf with flower pots. There are two entrances: the front door leads into the living room, which is open to the dining area and connects to a separate modern kitchen. The other entrance is up a few steps to a raised decking area with table and chairs that also leads to the kitchen.

The house has two seating areas, one near the front door. The living room leads to the family bathroom and the master bedroom, which includes fitted wardrobes and storage heaters. Upstairs, there is a second double bedroom with a dressing area or study. Patio doors open to a sun balcony with a large storage room that could serve as a third bedroom.

The views are of a small park and petanca pitches, and just 50 meters away is a lovely public pool. The white sandy beaches and several championship golf courses are a short drive away.
