A superb example of a traditional village home in picturesque mountain village . Within a couple of minutes of the charming central plaza, car parking available less than 100 meters from the house and all local amenities including excellent restaurants nearby. There are stunning views from the pretty roof terrace over the village, up to the impressive Sierras and down over the peaceful countryside to the Mediterranean.

On the left of the entrance hall the owners have reformed an old stable into a modern and stylish bathroom with separate utility area. They kept the original doorway thus giving two exits from the house if required. . The property has been made into a comfortable and attractive home without losing any of the wonderful old world charm of a pueblo house. From the entrance an attractive staircase leads up to a pretty dining room, off which is the rustic kitchen . On this level of the property there is a double bedroom with en-suite facilities and another smaller bedroom. On the upper floor one encounters a truly spectacular living room with open fireplace with the original niches at the side. Terracotta floors and wooden ceiling beams throughout the home add to the rustic ambience of the house while any renovations have been done with care to not lose the feeling of a true village home that has passed down through the centuries. There is another bedroom on this floor and a wooden staircase giving access to a small sheltered terrace from where a metal staircase leads up to the upper terrace which is a perfect place to relax , enjoy the tranquility of this lovely village and take in the spectacular sea views.

Immediately on entering this property one takes a step back in time to a more peaceful era. A charming home that has been renovated and well maintained over the years. If your dream is a typical Spanish village house which is suitable for modern day life then this is a must- see property.
