

Land til salgs i Canillas de Aceituno, Málaga

80.000€

A very interesting urban plot walking distance from the road in Canillas de Aceituno

The location offers beautiful views and the dimensions allow one to have two entrances opening onto two streets, one directly to the village, ideal to take advantage of the nearby local amenities and the other onto the ring road, useful for when you wish to leave by car as you do not have to enter the village.

It has the big advantage of having a private well and also a small building which is used as a toolshed.

A perfect plot for anyone thinking about constructing a property to match their own particular style and needs.
