Information about the area

The town of Torremolinos is known for being the tourist centre of southern Spain in the 1960s, although it has been growing and improving to offer quality services. The promenade of La Carihuela, just 10 minutes walk away, is one of the best known of the Costa del Sol, where dozens of restaurants and beach bars, with wide beaches and full of beach bars, make up a tourist offer of great importance. The centre of the town of Torremolinos, being its main street, has
