

3 soverom Rekkehus til salgs i Alcaudete, Jaén

48.000€

This 3 bedroom town house situated in Alcaudete in the Jaen province of Andalusia, Spain, is a solid, good value property waiting for its new owners. Enter the double wooden doors off a one way street into a typical Andalusian tiled entrance lobby, then another wood and glass door opens into a spacious living area with a room off to the left and the nice original staircase ahead. This living area leads into the tiled kitchen space, which needs fitting and you also have a walk in, under stair pantry. From the kitchen there is access to a split level, private patio with a store room the width of the patio. Upstairs a large bedroom at the back, a nice full bathroom and another large bedroom at the front that has a balcony with castle views. The third floor is one big open area with wooden roof beams, this could easily be two or three more rooms and there is also access out onto the terrace which overlooks the patio. This is a great, robust house to put your stamp on.
