55.000€

This is a great house in this popular village. It is ready to live in and needs no work doing to it. Inside it has a very modern feel and is just ideal as a family home for holidays or full-time living or could easily be separated into 2 separate apartments if you're looking for a rental opportunity. You can walk to all of the amenities the village has to offer, including shops and bars.

There is a small, gated porch at the front of the property, then you enter into a bright hallway. On the right are the stairs that take you up to the first floor, and on the left is an internal garage with fireplace. This is great for storage but could also be converted to give extra living space if required. Down the corridor, on the left, is a modern-fitted kitchen with storage space opposite and then further along is a large room with fireplace. This could either be a living room or another bedroom. Opposite is a small internal courtyard. Continuing down, you will find 2 large double bedrooms and a fitted bathroom. At the rear of the property is the first of 2 good-sized terraces. This one has a summer kitchen. On the 1st floor there is a large living room and dining area with balcony out to the front of the property. There is a 2nd, larger, fitted kitchen. There is also a large family bathroom and another double bedroom. A second good-sized terrace can be found at the rear of the property with great views out over the village and to the countryside beyond. The property is in immaculate condition and is ready to move straight into as it is being sold with some furniture, including the stair lift and a brand new Brompi pellet burner . Definitely one not to miss.
