Newly built villas in the Las Colinas Golf, with unobstructed views of the golf course, and sunny orientation. With plots of about 700 m², the houses are built on 2 floors, and give great importance to the relationship between the house and its surroundings, giving the rooms a lot of light, and creating fluid communication between internal and external spaces. The terraces on both floors stand out, to enjoy the surroundings and our magnificent climate. On the entrance floor there is a bedroom with en suite bathroom and dressing room, courtesy toilet, living-dining room-kitchen and laundry room. The bedroom floor consists of 2 double bedrooms and 1 or 2 bathrooms, depending on the model chosen.
