Semi-detached houses with a white façade, sunny, and with great natural lighting inside, clearly influenced by the more Mediterranean style. But taking care of detail also everything that is not perceived in such an obvious way, such as the materials used and the high-quality finishes applied in its construction. The semi-detached villas stand out at first glance due to the perfect balance transmitted by the combination of straight, pure and minimalist lines, together with other more wavy and organic parts, which give the whole an elegant and refined appearance that will not go unnoticed by anyone. On its terrace you can enjoy your family evenings, sunbathing, or cooling off in the 10 m2 pool included. In either case, you will have a fantastic home bathed in natural light, with a spacious living room that blends into the kitchen. You will enjoy the experience of living in an exclusive residential area full of large common areas for natural recreation, lush gardens, a bio-healthy area, children's games, and of course, 2 large community pools, one for adults and one for children. In short, the possibility of living the Mediterranean lifestyle and making it completely yours. Because if we analyze it, it has practically everything to become that little piece of paradise with a view to your new life.
