Penthouse in Villaricos with spectacular sea views

We present this charming penthouse located in the picturesque coastal village of Villaricos, an ideal place to enjoy the tranquillity and charm of the Mediterranean.

Upon entering, a welcoming hallway leads to a corridor that comfortably distributes the living spaces. To the left is a fully equipped kitchen, which includes a practical laundry room. To the right, a spacious and bright livingdining room connects to a small terrace offering direct sea views.

The property has three bedrooms full of natural light, and two complete bathrooms.

The highlight of the penthouse is its impressive rooftop solarium, a unique space where you can enjoy panoramic views of the area and the sea. This private corner is ideal for sunbathing or organising outdoor dinners as it has a kitchen and barbecue. Call 950 466 112 to arrange a guided tour.

About the area

Villaricos is a charming fishing village known for its authenticity, friendly atmosphere and connection to nature. The town has all the necessary amenities, such as restaurants, shops and basic services, as well as a marina that gives it an exclusive touch.

The proximity to crystal clear beaches and hidden coves make it an ideal destination for sea lovers and outdoor activities. In addition, its strategic location allows easy access to other points of interest on the coast of Almeria, such as Mojacar, Vera or Garrucha.
