

3 soverom Rekkehus til salgs i Orihuela Costa, Alicante

183.000€

Welcome to this versatile and well-designed townhouse, offering ample indoor and outdoor space in a prime location. Whether you are looking for a permanent residence, a holiday home, or an investment property, this house provides comfort, functionality, and potential for customization.

A Smart Layout for Comfortable Living

Ground Floor: Spacious open-plan kitchen, living, and dining area, creating a bright and welcoming atmosphere. The extra bedroom on this level is perfect for guests, a home office, or additional storage. A toilet with a laundry area, which includes a shower when the washing machine is installed, adds convenience. Alternatively, you can remove the washing machine and use the space as a full bathroom with a shower.

First Floor: Two generously sized bedrooms with built-in wardrobes offer comfort and storage. The master bedroom features a private balcony, ideal for morning coffee or unwinding in the evening. A large bathroom with a bathtub completes this level.

Rooftop Solarium: A private rooftop retreat offering sunbathing space, storage options, and an electric boiler. There is also room for additional storage, making it practical as well as enjoyable.
