

1 bedroom Townhouse for sale in Los Guajares, Granada

59,450€

Charming village house in a small, white washed village in the mountains of Granada. Beautifully brought up to date whilst maintaining the character of a traditional Spanish home. A compact but flexible layout with 1 bedroom. Would suit nature lovers, runners or cyclists, or artists. A great "lock and leave" holiday home or rental...

For sale direct from the owners!

This stylish and truly unique village house has been lovingly updated by the current owners. With great artistic flair, the house has been modernised completely and creates a beautiful blend of style and contemporary finishes with the charm and character that comes with a traditional Spanish village house.

The layout is flexible with three floors which can be used as you wish – currently, the owner has a bedroom on the top floor and a flexible living room with day bed on the middle floor. A stylish kitchen and shower room are on the ground floor. The middle floor could easily be used as a bedroom with the top floor benefiting from an open fronted terrace space.

The options are entirely dependent on how you see your future in the property.

The house is in the heart of the village which is located in the mountains above the Costa Tropical and the town of Motril. The village has a local bar and a medical centre and the other villages that form Los Guajares have further amenities within easy reach.
