This stunning villa is located in the peaceful countryside, within walking distance of the whitewashed town of Competa, Malaga, and will appeal to even the most discerning buyer. Competa, in the Axarquia region, has long been popular with buyers of all nationalities, as it offers a lively, vibrant town, with all the amenities that you could want, and we expect this special villa to create lots of interest.

The town celebrates many festivals throughout the year, with one of them being the Vino del Noche. This popular event, in August, celebrates the wine that is grown locally in the Competa area. It provides the visitor with an opportunity to immerse themselves in the culture of the town, and to witness the traditional way in which the grapes were crushed... with the feet!

With the wildflowers that adorn the roadsides, to the magnificent eagles and birds of prey, that can be seen, circling lazily above, the area is a nature lovers delight.
