The main house, spanning 142m², has been thoughtfully reformed and modernized. Originally built around 1970, legalized in 1990 and fully renovated in the last 5 years, it now features a bright and airy open-plan living space that combines the lounge, dining area, and kitchen. There are three spacious bedrooms, including a master suite with an ensuite bathroom, and an additional stylish family bathroom. A sunroom and veranda provide cozy spaces to enjoy year-round sunshine. The home is equipped with air conditioning, diesel central heating for added comfort in every season. The finca also includes a separate cottage, offering a private 14m² space with its own shower and toilet, ideal for guests or as a home office. Outside, the 1,000m² plot boasts a re-tiled 8x4m swimming pool with a covered dome, a relaxing jacuzzi, and a wooden summer house. The property benefits from an agricultural water supply, supported by two water deposits (5,000 liters above ground and 11,000 liters underground). Internet access ensures you stay connected, though note that the property lacks a habitation certificate due to its reliance on non-drinking water. This finca is more than a home, it's a lifestyle.
