Cave house David in Galera

This is a stunning, large, modern cave house situated in the heights of Galera. The cave is built into the hillside, positioned up above the road, offering great views of the village and La Sagra mountain. This property has fabulous living spaces both indoor and outdoor for relaxing or entertaining.

There is a large, elevated front patio, an open plan living/dining/kitchen/pantry, 5 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms plus a delightful upstairs bedroom with quirky rooftop terraces. The property has a driveway, parking garage and shed.

The spacious patio is designed for comfortable, relaxed, outdoor living, with 3 sitting area, offering both sun and shade. In one corner is a BBQ with a sink. The veranda has a lounge and a dining area for 3-season outdoor dining. Beyond the veranda is open air seating. The patio floors feature colourful inlaid stone, a signature patio floor style in Galera.

Inside, this cave is open, stylish and filled with quirky features. The cave style has flowing walls and ceilings with clean, curvy lines. The house has a spacious interior, enhanced with carefully chosen lighting, floor tiles and large windows for lots of light. The entire property has been beautifully finished.

The living room has a large wood burning stove.

The dining area is across from the kitchen.

There is a fully equipped walk-through kitchen with breakfast bar and a large, open pantry, continuing the theme of spaciousness and flow.
