The property boasts a high-quality build, with flat, spacious land surrounding it. As you enter, you're greeted by a large, covered terrace—ideal for dining or enjoying your morning coffee while taking in the serene views. Inside, the property features a generously sized living area, complete with an already installed kitchen, making it ready for you to move in and personalize. There is also a bathroom and three comfortable bedrooms. In addition to the main house, the property includes several outbuildings, which could serve as a workshop, extra guest space, or be transformed into whatever you envision. The land is dotted with a selection of trees, and the property benefits from a good amount of acequia rights, perfect for maintaining the land's lush greenery. Situated close to the vibrant town of Orgiva but in a peaceful, rural setting, this property offers the ideal escape for those looking for space, comfort, and a connection to nature.
