

Country House for sale in Santa Eularia Des Riu, Ibiza

115,000€

For sale rustic agricultural land of 2.500 m², situated in a privileged location within walking distance to Santa Eulalia. This property stands out for its authentic character and its great potential. The land is completely flat, which facilitates the cultivation or the installation of any agricultural or recreational project. It has mains water and electricity supply, offering all the comforts to start immediately. On the property there is an old stone storehouse, which provides traditional charm and could be restored for various uses, such as a storehouse or a shed. The side of the plot is bounded by a solid stone wall 0.80 m high, which provides privacy and clearly defines the boundaries of the plot. In addition, the plot borders two roads, ensuring easy access from different points. This plot is ideal for those looking for a quiet rural space, with connection to essential services and the possibility of developing an agricultural or personal project in a privileged natural environment.
