

Land for sale in Novelda, Alicante

37,000€

Versatile Plot with Irrigation Water Between Monóvar and Novelda This well-located plot offers excellent opportunities for a variety of uses. Its generous size and secure fencing make it ideal for keeping animals or creating your own garden oasis. With access to irrigation water, you can cultivate a vegetable garden, fruit trees, or other agricultural projects to suit your needs. Additionally, the land allows for the installation of a mobile caravan (subject to administrative approval), making it a flexible choice for those seeking a practical and customizable solution for rural living or weekend retreats. About the Area Situated between the towns of Monóvar and Novelda, this property benefits from a convenient and peaceful location. Monóvar is known for its charming old town, traditional wine production, and essential amenities, while Novelda is celebrated for its modern facilities and historical landmarks, including its stunning castle and marble craftsmanship. Both towns provide easy access to shops, schools, healthcare, and transportation links, making the area perfect for combining rural life with modern convenience. Whether you're looking to establish a hobby farm, start an agricultural project, or create a tranquil retreat, this plot offers plenty of possibilities. Contact us today to learn more!
