

4 bedroom Townhouse for sale in Lora de Estepa, Sevilla

199,950€

This property is located within the quiet village of Lora de Estepa which offers all the local amenities whilst being just a short 2 minute drive to access the motorway for exploring Andalucia and only 5 minutes drive to the bustling town of Estepa. The property is accessed via a typically tiled entrance hall that leads to a central reception, that opens to a ground floor bedroom and on to a separate dining room and nicely fitted kitchen with plenty of storage space and a separate pantry. The reception has french doors that open to an internal patio area with utility room and separate bathroom and continues to a second covered patio and large summer kitchen/workshop with open fireplace. This patio opens to a rear garden with various established fruit trees and storage rooms. On the first floor the stairwell opens to two front bedrooms a full family bathroom and a third central bedroom. This floor opens to a spacious partially covered terrace with spectacular views over the countryside and beyond.
