They are furnished and decorated to be lived in, all different and far from the uniformity of a hotel. Furniture restored by ourselves, hundreds of antique and curious objects, most of them nowadays in disuse, that we have been collecting for many years, diving in antique shops and flea markets. These objects, which we once bought for our personal satisfaction and to which we have dedicated many hours of our free time to leave them in the good condition in which they can be seen today.

They are located in the centre of the village and only a few metres from the Town Hall, , cash dispenser, bakery, bars, restaurants and other services.
