This lovely townhouse is situated within short walking distance of the main square of Torrox, near the newly restored church in the old part of town.

This spacious house includes an entrance via the kitchen, adjoining room and bathroom. Going up a small flight of stairs there is a second kitchen and another bathroom with a shower. The first floor consists of two double bedrooms and the upper floor is composed of the terrace with gorgeous views over the white washed village, the pretty red church and the impressive mountains in the background, as well as a storage area and another family bathroom.

The property can be extended with a small house right next door in need of renovations.

This is a large property, which might need a bit of updating but which, with its great space and private terrace, would be an ideal permanent residence, a great holiday home or a well sought after rental property.
