99.950€

A partially renovated typical Spanish farmhouse on the outskirts of a quiet rural inland community in Tarifa near Cullar, Granada, Andalucia. The property has had a new roof and has kept all of the original features. The apartment side has been fully renovated and the owner has leveled out the floors of the main part ready for underfloor heating and tiling.-----

Currently part of the farmhouse is renovated to a high standard with a bedroom, bathroom, living room and a kitchen/dinner with under floor heating and a gated entrance and a large garden area. Finished off this could be a beautiful 2/3 bedroom farmhouse with a rental apartment.
