139.000€

Traditional townhouse in the center of Competa, just a short walk from the main square, close to the Ermita de San Antón, and conveniently near all the local amenities this charming town has to offer.

Upon entering through the main door, you find a small living room and two additional rooms. One of these rooms features a fireplace and could be transformed into a kitchen, as it is adjacent to a spacious patio. The patio could remain as it is, allowing natural light to flow into the interior of the house and providing a perfect spot for outdoor dining. From the living room, stairs lead to the upper floor, where there are two more rooms that could serve as bedrooms or a combination of a living room and a bedroom.

This simple, traditional home is located on one of the town's main streets, bustling with visitors from across Europe. Although the property requires a complete renovation, it holds great potential to become either a permanent residence or a second home.
