Calle Cristo runs from the main road across the top of Nerja, practically all the way down to the Balcon de Europa. The bottom half of the street (from its junction with Calle Los Huertos) is pedestrianised and as a result there are many restaurants and bars here with tables outside on the pavement. This section is one of the most popular parts of the old town and features on our old town tapas trail.

From the bottom of Calle Cristo, Calahonda beach is a few minutes walk away and is quite possibly the most picturesque beach in Nerja, with Banagueros restaurant right on the beach. This is accessed by a long flight of steps
