

9 спальная комната городская тюрьма продается в Orcera, Jaén

60.000€

This is a beautiful large ready to live in property located in the lovely town of Orcera, a small village of around 2200 population and completely surrounded by nature and the absolutely mesmerizing views of the natural park of Sierra de Segura. The house is located in the centre of town but at the back of the property there are no other houses to obstruct the view. Take the back part of the roof off to make a roof terrace with stunning views of those mountains. Orcera has several options for shopping close to the property's location and all the other essentials, including the town hall at the beginning of the road. Behind the property there is also a public park area.
