Cueva Ahimsa in Caniles

This is a detached 4/5 bedroom rustic cave house situated on 10,000m² of land. This beautiful cave property is located on its own in the hills of the Altiplano de Granada. The location feels remote however it is just 10 minutes drive to the village of Caniles and 15 minutes to the city Baza.

At the front of the property is a patio and pergola, ideal for dining or relaxing, with stunning views across to the mountains. There is ample parking and 2 fenced areas: a veggie patch and a chicken run. Another small front patio has an outside shower and toilet. A small storage room houses the batteries for the solar system. There are 2 unreformed caves currently being used for storage. The 1 hectare of land has various fruit trees planted on the other side of the hill and there is plenty of room to plant more.

The cave is cosy and comfortable, with lots of quirky, cavey character.

You enter the cave into the kitchen and breakfast/sitting area with a large fireplace. To the left you enter a snug with a wood burner and then a sunny double bedroom. Straight back from the entrance is a dining room and sitting area, beyond which is an unreformed cave room that could be a 5th bedroom. To the right of the kitchen is a central hall which leads to a double bedroom and full bathroom. Further on are 2 single bedrooms, a storage room and a second entrance to the cave. With this second entrance, a separate unit could be set up for your visitors or as a holiday rental.

The property is fully powered with solar. It is also possible to be connected to the mains electricity. The property has mains water and a septic tank. Internet is currently connected.
