Duplex apartment on the seafront of Puerto Pollensa, Mallorca for sale. This duplex property is located on the first and second floors and offers stunning views. The highlight of this apartment is the huge living area that leads to a terrace offering incredible views. There are two more bedrooms, one single and one double, plus a shower room. The apartment is fitted with real wood flooring and quality wooden wardrobes. The building has access from the seafront with a lift to get up to the first floor. There is a pre-installation of AC. With some renovation work, this could be a beautiful and comfortable home!
