Torrevieja is a coastal city in the south of the Alicante province, in the Valencian Community. It is one of the most popular tourist destinations on the Costa Blanca, known for its mild, sunny climate throughout the year, with more than 300 sunny days annually.

Its natural surroundings are unique thanks to the Las Lagunas de La Mata and Torrevieja Natural Park, a protected area featuring two large saltwater lagoons that give the water a pink hue. These salt flats have been an essential part of the local economy for centuries and are now a tourist attraction due to their beauty and biodiversity.

Torrevieja boasts beautiful beaches like Playa del Cura, Playa de Los Locos, and Playa de La Mata, perfect for relaxation and water sports. The city also offers a lively promenade, a marina, and a wide range of restaurants and shops.

The city has a rich history tied to fishing and salt production, reflected in its monuments and museums, such as the
